Christ with me,
 Christ before me,
 Christ behind me,
 Christ in me,
 Christ beneath me,
 Christ above me,
 Christ on my right,
 Christ on my left,
 Christ when I lie down,
 Christ when I sit down,
 Christ when I arise,
 Christ in the heart of every man who thinks of me,
 Christ in the mouth of everyone
 who speaks of me,
 Christ in every eye that sees me,
 Christ in every ear that hears me.
 I arise today
 Through a mighty strength,
 the invocation of the Trinity,
 Through belief in the Threeness,
 Through confession of the Oneness
 of the Creator of creation.
 (St. Patrick's Breastplate)

FEBRUARY 15, 2026 ~ SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reflecting on the Word:

We all know we must avoid serious sins. Jesus reminds us today that it's not just big, horrible actions that can cause harm in our lives and damage our relationship with God, he tells us that the things we might not even notice – things like being angry with someone or wanting what someone else has – can lead to big problems. Thankfully, we've been given the gift of the holy Spirit who can help us see where we need God's help and who can give us the strength we need to Change!

Living the Word:

Small things can make a big difference. While today's Gospel focuses on avoiding small things that can do great harm, it is also true that small acts of love can lead to great good-ness. As a family, choose one small thing to work on very intentionally this week, such as saying thank you more often or giving a hug more frequently. At the end of the week, have a conversation about how this small action affected your family.

Reflexion de la Palabra:

Debemos evitar los pecados graves; lo sabemos bien. Jesús nos recuerda hoy que no son solo las acciones grandes y horribles las que nos perjudican y dañan nuestra relación con Dios. Nos dice que las cosas que tal vez ni siquiera notamos (como estar enojado con alguien o querer lo que otra persona tiene) pueden generar grandes problemas. ¡por fortuna, se nos ha dado el don del espíritu Santo que nos ayuda a ver donde necesitamos la ayuda de Dios y quien puede darnos la fuerza necesaria para cambiar!

Vivir la Palabra:

Las cosas pequeñas pueden marcar una gran diferencia. Si bien el evangelio de hoy se centra en evitar pequeñas cosas que pueden causar un gran daño, también es cierto que los pequeños actos de amor pueden conducir a un gran bien. En familia, elijan una cosa pequeña para trabajarla esta semana de manera muy intencional; puede ser el decir gracias más a menudo o dar un abrazo con mas frecuencia. Al final de la semana, conversen sobre como esta pequeña acción ha afectado a la familia.
