FEBRUARY 8, 2026 ~ FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME.

Reflecting on the Word:

Today’s Gospel uses familiar items help us understand God’s call in our life. Jesus reminds us that we are the salt of the earth and the light of the world. If you’ve ever eaten a meal with no Salt, you know the difference salt makes! And we all know how difficult and even dangerous it can be to move around when there is no light. Because Jesus lives in us, we can be salt, bringing out the goodness in those around us. Because of God’s presence in our lives, we can be light for others, showing the way to God’s goodness and love.

Living the Word:

For a meal this week set aside a small portion that isn’t seasoned with salt, let everyone taste the unsalted bit and then compare it to the seasoned portion. Throughout the week, draw comparisons between the good actions of family members and the seasoned meal as a way of remembering Jesus’ call to be the salt of the earth, for example, you could say, “Wow, when you helped me fold those clothes, that made it so much more fun! You were like salt for my chores, helping me notice how good it is to have such nice things to wear!”

Reflexion de la Palabra:

Para comprender mejor la voz de dios en nuestra vida, el evangelio se vale de elementos muy conocidos, Jesús nos recuerda que somos un guiso sin sal, ¿sabe lo que la sal hace a la comida! Y sabemos lo difícil que e incómodo, e incluso peligroso, que puede resultar desplazarse cuando no hay luz. Porque Jesús vive en nosotros, podemos ser la sal, sacando a relucir la bondad de quienes nos rodean. Gracias a la presencia de Dios en nuestra vida, podemos ser luz para los demás, y mostrar el camino a la bondad y el amor de Dios.

Vivir la Palabra:

En una comida de esta semana, reserva una porción pequeña que no este sazónada, en los días siguientes, hagan comparaciones entre las buenas acciones de la familia y la comida sazónada a modo de recordar el llamado de Jesús a ser la sal de la tierra, Por ejemplo, podrían decir: “¡Vaya, cuando me ayudaste a doblar la ropa: fue mucho mas divertido! ¡Fuiste la sal de mis quehaceres ayudándome a darme cuenta de lo bueno que es tener ropa tan linda!”.
