MARCH 22, 2026 ~ FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Reflecting on the Word:

As we read this story, we hear again and again how Jesus loved Lazarus, Martha, and Mary. There are times in this story when they probably didn't understand what Jesus was doing (why did he wait two days after receiving news of Lazarus' illness to go there?) but he was always acting out of profound love for them. The same is true for us. Jesus loves us, and his love is more powerful than anything bad in our life-even death. Even if we cannot understand or see how he is working, Jesus is always acting out of love for us.

Living the Word:

Neighbors, family, and friends all went to be with Martha and Mary in their grief. As a result, many came to believe in Jesus. By helping others, we too often come to know Jesus better. This week, think of someone you know that you can help. Maybe you know someone who is sad that you can visit or send a card to, or someone who is sick that you could help by doing yard work. Work as a family to reach out to someone like people did for Mary and Martha and pray that this action will help you to know Jesus better, too.

Reflexion de la Palabra:

En el relato escuchamos que Jesús amaba a Lázaro, Marta y María. Hay momentos en esta historia en los que quizá no hayan entendido lo que Jesús hacía (¿por qué esperó dos días tras recibir la noticia de la enfermedad de Lázaro para ir allí?) pero él siempre actuaba movido por un profundo amor hacia ellos. Lo mismo vale respecto a nosotros. Jesús nos ama y su amor es más poderoso que cualquier cosa mala en nuestra vida, incluso la muerte. Incluso si no entendemos o vemos cómo está obrando, Jesús siempre obra por amor a nosotros.

Vivir la palabra:

Vecinos, familiares y amigos fueron a consolar a Marta y María en su dolor. Como consecuencia de la resurrección de Lázaro, muchos llegaron a creer en Jesús. Ayudar a los demás nos facilita conocer mejor a Jesús. Esta semana, piensen en algún conocido a quién ayudar: tal vez alguien que esté triste al que puedan visitar o enviarle una tarjeta, o alguien enfermo al que puedan ayudar trabajando en el jardín. En familia, acérquense a alguien como lo hicieron las personas con María y Marta, y oren para que esta acción les ayude a ustedes también a conocer mejor a Jesús.
