She also provides assistance during the youth retreat Pascua Juvenil and the annual Parish Festival. St. Patrick is grateful that Roxana is a member of the parish community!

Reflecting on the Word:

Today’s Gospel might feel a bit puzzling, but it is important to note that the riches Jesus is talking about here are not money or power or any other earthly wealth. We could put together what he is saying as, “To anyone who has (knowledge of the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven), more will be given and he will grow rich”. He also reminds us that, if we don’t have his wisdom, even what we think we know will eventually prove itself to be empty. The riches Jesus promises us are wisdom and understanding of the mysteries of his kingdom. How can we open our hearts and minds to see and listen and understand?

Living the Word:

At the end of today’s Gospel Jesus laments that many people “look but not see and hear but not listen or understand.” This week, consider ways you can practice seeing and listening to God and work on them together.

Reflexion de la Palabra:

La lectura es un tanto desconcertante, pero hay que señalar que la abundancia de la que Jesús habla aquí no es dinero, ni poder, ni ninguna otra riqueza terrenal. Podríamos resumir así lo que esta diciendo: “A cualquiera que tenga el conocimiento de los ministerios del reino de los cielos, se le dará mas y nadara en abundancia”. Igualmente nos recuerda que, de no tener esta sabiduría, incluso lo que creemos saber eventualmente resultara vacío. La gran riqueza que Jesús nos promete es la sabiduría y la comprensión de los ministerios de su reino. ¿Cómo podemos abrir nuestro corazón y mente para ver, escuchar y comprender?

Vivir la Palabra:

Al final del evangelio de hoy, Jesús lamenta que haya muchas personas que “viviendo no ven y oyendo no oyen ni entienden”. Esta semana, consideren formas en que pueden practicar ver y escuchar a Dios y trabajar juntos en ello.

Registraciones para Educación Religiosa estan abiertas.
