Reflecting on the Word:

In this Gospel, our attention can often be drawn to Peter miraculously walking on the water, or to his faltering faith which leads him to start sinking. There is a third element that merits our attention—what does Peter do when he starts to sink? He asks for Jesus’ help. And Jesus “immediately stretched out his hand and caught him” In our faith life, we may be filled with doubt and start to falter. In all of this, however, we can trust that Jesus is ready to reach out to us immediately, ready to catch us when we fall.

Living the Word:

This week, make a list of tasks that is difficult for each family member. You might list things like folding laundry, cleaning up your room, or doing math homework. Then partner up for these activities every time they need to be done this week; no one works alone on their least favorite chore or task for seven days! At the end of week, say family prayer thanking Jesus for reminding you—through the presence and support of your family members—that he is always with us in times of difficulty and struggle.

Reflexion de la Palabra:

En este evangelio, a menudo nos centramos en Pedro que camina milagrosamente sobre el agua, o en la fe vacilante que lo lleva a comenzar a hundirse. Hay, sin embargo, un tercer elemento que merece nuestra atenci n:  qu  hace Pedro cuando empieza a hundirse? Pidan la ayuda de Jes s. En nuestra vida de fe, a veces podemos confiar en el poder de Jes s. En otras ocasiones, podemos sentirnos llenos de dudas y empezar a flaquear. Pero en todo esto podemos confiar en que Jes s est  listo para alcanzarnos de inmediato, listo para sostenernos cuando caigamos.

Vivir la palabra:

Que cada miembro de la familia anote en una lista la tarea que le resulte mas dif cil. Anoten como doblar la ropa, limpiar la habitaci n o hacer la tarea de matem ticas. Luego, as ci nse para estas actividades al tal modo que durante siete d as  nadie las haga solo! Al final de la semana, hagan una oraci n familiar agradeciendo a Jeus por recordarles, mediante la presencia y el apoyo de todos en la familia, que el siempre est  con nosotros en momentos de dificultad y lucha.
